

Nanette Swarthout

Ms. Nanette Swarthout has more than 20 years corporate and educational experience. Currently, she is a Human Resources Course Mentor in the College of Business at Western Governors University. As a senior instructor, Ms. Swarthout has taught undergraduate and graduate courses in management and human resources to Fontbonne University adult learners for 15 years.

Previously Swarthout was the VP of Human Resources in the healthcare industry, Director of Employment, Employee Relations, and the Director of Training in the airline, insurance, and software industries.

Ms. Swarthout has served on numerous DEAC Examining committees as Chairperson and Evaluator for both Educational and Business Standards. Ms. Swarthout earned an MBA degree from Fontbonne University and a Bachelor of Science in Communications from Illinois State University. Ms. Swarthout is certified SPHR and SHRM-SCP. In April 2011, she was presented the DEAC's "Distance Education Award", and received the 2010 Fontbonne Options Outstanding Faculty award.