DETC Appoints New Manager of Institutional Review

The Distance Education and Training Council is pleased to announce Ms. Kimberly Cook has joined the organization to serve as the Council's Manager of Institutional Review. Kim will be primarily responsible for coordinating institutional submissions provided to the Accrediting Commission for accreditation renewal and the preparation and distribution of all communications of final accreditation decisions.

Cook brings with her extensive knowledge of accreditation and compliance, having previously served as the Senior Director of Educational Compliance at Delta Career Education Corporation where she was instrumental in ensuring compliance with accreditation criteria, coordinating the accreditation process for more than 30 institutions, and educated institutions regarding institutional effectiveness planning.

"Kim's wealth of experience and industry knowledge will make her a key addition to DETC," said Executive Director Dr. Leah Matthews. "Her appointment is a sign of DETC's continuing commitment to our mission of assuring students high quality distance education through accreditation, peer review, and institutional improvement."

Ms. Cook will officially join DETC Thursday, May 29th, and can be reached at (202) 234-5100, ext. 107, or via email at kim@detc.org.

ABOUT DETC

The Distance Education and Training Council (DETC) Accrediting Commission is a private, non-profit organization founded in 1926 that operates as a national accreditor of distance education institutions. DETC's goal is to ensure a high standard of educational quality in the distance education institutions it accredits and a quality education for the more than two million students who annually study at its accredited institutions.
