

Christopher Reeves

Christopher J. Reeves, a resident of Southeastern Iowa, has served as the President of Shiloh University since 2007. He joined the University at its founding in 2006 as Vice President of Administration and Finance. Mr. Reeves led the University's team of educators, ministers, and administrators in establishing the institution, its curriculum, and accreditation; he continues to lead its quality initiatives and expanding operations. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Business and Accounting in 1976 at Azusa Pacific University, took additional accounting courses, and was licensed as a Certified Public Accountant in the State of California

Mr. Reeves is currently completing his M.Ed. in Instructional Design from Western Governors University. He has taught business and accounting courses and written manuals and training materials for church leaders and administrators. For over 20 years, Mr. Reeves has served as an officer and a board member for a number of non-profit organizations, and in various capacities of church leadership. Since 2009, Mr. Reeves has been an active member of the Distance Education Accrediting Commission, serving on its Educational Standards Committee, as a business standards evaluator, and commissioner.
