

Cheri St. Arnauld

Dr. Cheri St. Arnauld is President of Aspen University and Chief Academic Officer of Aspen Group, Inc. She has been in education for more than 30 years, spending 20 of those in distance education. She has held the titles of Dean, Executive Director, Provost, CAO, and President at both large and small for profit institutions. After receiving two degrees in education from Arizona State University, she completed an Ed.D. from Nova Southeastern University in 1998.

Dr. St. Arnauld has experience in developing quality distance education programs with strong mission driven institutional processes. She has scaled robust student assessment frameworks, developed extensive faculty training, and ensured quality curriculum to confirm learning outcomes are achieved. She believes in safeguarding the quality of the student experience, threading excellent support services throughout the student lifecycle.

Dr. St. Arnauld has extensive background in successful accreditation visits from national, regional, and programmatic accreditors. She has worked closely with CFOs through institution wide strategic planning and budgeting processes and managed multi-million dollar budgets for university operations. She has served on site visits as Education Specialist multiple times Dr. St. Arnauld is passionate about quality and rigor in online programs.