DEAC Announces 90th Annual Business Meeting

In accordance with Article III, Section 3 of the Bylaws of the Distance Education and Training Council (doing business as the Distance Education Accrediting Commission), notice is given to all members that the Annual Business Meeting will take place at 8:00 AM on Monday, April 11, 2016 at the Loews Madison Hotel in Washington, DC. The Bylaws state that the Corporation shall meet annually to elect Directors from its membership, to receive annual committee reports, and to transact other business. The Annual Business Meeting is open to all members.

Board of Director Elections to Commence at Annual Business Meeting

Electronic ballots will be available to all DEAC members beginning April 11, 2016 at the Annual Business Meeting. Each DEAC-accredited institution represented at the Business Meeting is entitled to one vote. Attending the Annual Business Meeting and participating in the election is a concrete way institutions can participate in the continuity or orderly succession of DEAC's leadership and uphold a practice of good governance. Please view DEAC's Announcement of Candidates for Election to Board of Directors for information about the director candidates.

ABOUT DEAC

The Distance Education Accrediting Commission, formerly the Distance Education and Training Council, is a private, non-profit organization founded in 1926 that operates as a national accreditor of distance education institutions. DEAC's goal is to ensure a high standard of educational quality in the distance education institutions it accredits and a quality education for the more than two million students who annually study at its accredited institutions.
