

Report from the Accrediting Commission

March 28, 2019

On March 18, 2019, the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) met and took action to withdraw accreditation from the following institution.

- APT College, 333 University Avenue, Suite 200, Sacramento, CA 95825¹

This report summarizes the action taken by the Accrediting Commission in accordance with its procedure for Notification and Information Sharing, Section X(F), Policies and Procedures, DEAC Accreditation Handbook. The Commission took action to withdraw accreditation because APT College did not comply with Part II, Processes and Procedures, Section XVI (A), DEAC Accreditation Handbook which requires that institutions maintain accreditation, in part, by paying all DEAC dues and fees on a timely basis, Article III, Section 6 of the DEAC Bylaws states that DEAC shall be empowered to withdraw the accreditation of any accredited member whose dues are delinquent. The Commission has acted, consistent with its authority under these provisions of the Bylaws and Accreditation Handbook, to withdraw the accreditation of the institution effective March 18, 2019.

¹ This location was pending approval from DEAC. The institution had submitted an application for a change of location—part one, which was under review by DEAC at the time of the March 18, 2019 Commission action.
