

Report from the Accrediting Commission

June 1, 2016

In accordance with its procedure for Notification and Information Sharing (Section X.F), Part II. Processes and Procedures, DEAC Accreditation Handbook) and 34 Code of Federal Regulations §602.26(e) (1)&(2), within 30 days of receiving notification from an institution of its decision to resign or voluntarily withdraw from accreditation, the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) posts a notice of the institution's resignation or voluntary withdrawal of accreditation on its website and provides written notice to the U.S. Secretary of Education, appropriate state licensing agencies or authorizing agency, and the appropriate accrediting organizations and, upon request, the public.

Institutional Resignations

The Commission accepted the voluntary resignation of accreditation from the following institution effective June 1, 2016.

Global University

1211 South Glenstone Avenue
Springfield, Missouri 65804

Founded 1948

Institutional Closures

The Commission was informed that the institution below is closing, effective August 15, 2016.

Northwest Institute of Literary Arts

6511 Bayview Road
Langley, Washington 98249

Founded 2005

The Commission received notification that the institution below is closing. As of June 4, 2016, all students will have completed the program, and the institution will be closed.

Humanities and Sciences Academy

35 East Wacker Drive, Suite 440
Chicago, Illinois 60601

Founded 2004