

Report from the Accrediting Commission

June 6, 2019

In accordance with its procedure for Notification and Information Sharing (Section X.F.&G.), Part II Processes and Procedures, DEAC Accreditation Handbook) and 34 Code of Federal Regulations §602.26(e)(1), the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) provides written notice to the U.S. Secretary of Education, the appropriate state licensing or authorizing agencies, the appropriate accrediting organizations, and the public if an accredited institution decides to resign or voluntarily withdraw from accreditation.

The following institution has elected to voluntarily withdraw from accreditation and cease operations, effective June 16, 2019. The institution is withdrawing while operating under a Show Cause Directive. DEAC is providing this notice in addition to complying with the accreditation online collection system.

- University of Philosophical Research, 3910 Los Feliz Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90027