Report from the Accrediting Commission

July 28, 2020

The Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) met on June 19, 2020 and took action to deny initial accreditation to the institution listed below. The institution did not elect to appeal the decision; therefore, the decision is final and effective as of July 28, 2020.

California University of Business and Technology
2440-131 South Hacienda Boulevard
Hacienda Heights, CA 91745

This report provides a brief summary of the action taken by the Accrediting Commission to deny initial accreditation in accordance with its procedure for Notification and Information Sharing, Section XV. C. Policies and Procedures, DEAC Accreditation Handbook.

The substance of CUBT's submissions did not meet the Commission's threshold requirements for consideration and an extensive amount of analysis and documentation was needed in order for CUBT to demonstrate that the institution meets DEAC Accreditation Standards. After carefully reviewing the entire record and thoughtfully weighing CUBT's written responses to DEAC's requests for evidence of compliance, the Commission determined that CUBT did not provide sufficient documentation to demonstrate that it had taken the steps necessary to come into compliance with DEAC Standards of Accreditation.
